

DARWIN WEEK

February 10 - 13, 2020

A public event and lecture series celebrating the study of evolution, natural history, and International Darwin Day on February 12.

All events are FREE and open to the public!

MONDAY - Dr. Joan Strassmann

Professor of Biology, Washington University

Who Benefits in Amoeba-Bacteria Symbioses?

2 p.m., Guyon Auditorium, Morris Library

Why Have Large Organisms Evolved?

7p.m., Guyon Auditorium, Morris Library

TUESDAY - Student Symposium

6:30 p.m., Guyon Auditorium, Morris Library

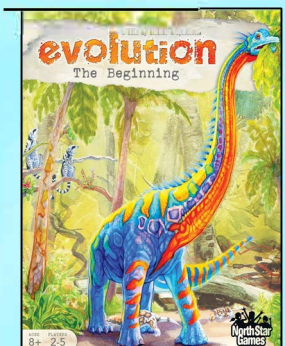

Annual Darwin Week Student Symposium featuring a variety of talks given by SIU students!

WEDNESDAY - Art Show & Game Night

5 p.m., Art Alley & Mississippi Room, SIU Student Center

Art and natural history collections exhibition featuring works from the SIU community.

Game night featuring Evolution: The Beginning with prizes for winners and a raffle for all participants!

THURSDAY - Dr. Pam Soltis

Director of Biodiversity Institute, University of Florida

Integrated Research Using Digitized Herbarium Resources

2 p.m., Guyon Auditorium, Morris Library

Building, using and teaching the tree of life

7 p.m., Guyon Auditorium, Morris Library