

University

Honors Program

Southern Illinois University Carbondale

Sponsored in part by The Darwin Day Foundation,
the Department of Zoology, and Saluki First Year

Spring 2010 Charles D. Tenney Distinguished Lecturer Series

Morris Library 110 | 453.2824 | www.honors.siu.edu

WED., FEB. 10 @ 7:30 PM

Student Center Ballroom D

A Reception and Book Signing

Following Immediately

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Philosopher of Science

MICHAEL RUSE

Can A Darwinian Be A Christian?

Conversation at the Crossroads of Science and Religion

More than a mere argument over science, the war of evolution vs. Creationism is really a battle between two competing worldviews. In this talk, Michael Ruse traces this battle back to the Enlightenment -- to the loss of faith in the Western world -- and reveals how these two diametrically opposed (yet, in many ways, similar) ideologies have fought for the privilege of defining human origins, moral values, and the nature of reality